

... A new book on Kannada Language has been published by Bruhat Bangalore Mahanagara Palike, this is titled "Brihat Jataka in Kannada" with 576 pages of text and 109 illustrations. The book is written in Kannada language and can be read by children as well as grown-ups who are interested to learn the language too! The first section of the book includes rules on how to read texts written in Kannada script, grammar points with examples, vocabulary list for beginners and a list of commonly used words which are used all over India today. The second section of the book is a collection of 10 stories from the Jataka tales written by Pampa, Adikavi Pampa, Kalidasa and later on translated to Kannada. The book was released at Vidhana Soudha by Honorable Chief Minister Siddaramiah on September 15, 2017. This article can be expanded.
